NOTIFICATION NO. 16/2011 (Amended)
Part 'B'

Sub :- Pattern of passing in the examination in the subject "Introduction to Computer" of I year Basic B. Sc. Nursing Course = Eligibility criteria to appear in the University level examination.

Ref :- 1) University Notification No. 16/2007 Part 'B'.
2) BOE resolution dated 15/05/2007.
3) BOS resolution dated 07/08/2011.

In the event of amendment to the Notification No. 16/2007, as per Board of Studies Resolution dated 07/08/2011, it is hereby notified that Examination in the subject "Introduction to Computer" of I year Basic B. Sc. Nursing course be conducted at a college level. Internal assessment marks for qualifying to appear for University Examination must be minimum 50% combined together i.e. 50 marks out of 100 marks (Theory and Practical examinations clubbed). Student who fails or student who secures less than 50% combined marks (Theory and Practical) will be treated as ineligible to appear in any subject of the University's final examination. It is further made clear that it is mandatory to the students to appear in both Theory & Practical components of the said subject. In case any student is absent either in Theory & Practical, the marks obtained for any single component (even 50 out of 50 marks) will not be considered and the student will be ineligible to appear in University final examinations. This change has been made applicable with immediate effect i.e. from Summer 2011 exam.

Marks of "Introduction to Computer" subject will not be considered for counting in Grand-Total Marks and also will not be considered while counting the merit.
